PURPOSE, DEFINITIONS, AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

.1 PURPOSE OF POLICIES

Clallam County's administrative policies and procedures are an official publication of Clallam County. They are adopted by the Board of Commissioners and contain the policies, procedures, and regulations of the County. These policies, procedures, and regulations are established to direct all employees in carrying out their duties and responsibilities and to provide an expectation of consistency, accountability, and predictability to citizens. Violations of any of the policies, procedures, or regulations contained in this manual may be grounds for disciplinary action.

.2 AUTHORITY

The Board of Commissioners has the authority to issue, modify, or approve all countywide policies, procedures, or other directives. County Officials have the authority to issue policies, procedures, and directives applicable to their departments that are not in conflict with administrative policies. Clallam County's Administrative Policies are adopted by reference as ordinances according to CCC 3.07.

.3 APPLICABILITY

Unless otherwise stated in a specific policy, Clallam County Administrative Policies and Procedures apply to all County offices/departments and agencies and to all County Officials, their employees, and volunteers.

.4 DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise stated in a specific policy, the following definitions apply throughout the County's Administrative Policies and Procedures. These definitions are provided primarily for the convenience of employees. The County recognizes that statutory and/or regulatory definitions exist for several of the terms. Nothing herein is intended to change or diminish the significance of the same terms defined in statutes, ordinances, or regulations.

"Adjusted Date of Classification" means the actual date of placement into the employee's current classification with an adjustment made for any period of layoff or leave without pay.

"Adjusted Date of Hire" means the actual hire date with an adjustment made for any period of layoff or leave without pay.

"Administrative Costs" means direct costs usually associated with administrative activities such as bookkeeping, billing, etc., within a grant recipient, or other affected department.

"Administrative Leave" means paid leave of absence pending the investigation of an allegation of misconduct or criminal activity, pending a disciplinary action, or in other situations as determined by the Human Resources Director.

"Agenda Item Summary" means a cover letter submitted with an agenda item summarizing the issue to be considered, any background, budgetary impacts, and appropriate recommendations. The agenda item summary form is available as a Word template on the Intranet under "County Forms" and is required to be used by all departments.

"Alternative Work Week" means an employee may work any combination of hours in a given day and shall not be eligible for overtime until the total work week hours exceed forty (40).

"Allocation" means the assignment of an individual position to an appropriate classification on the basis of the kind, difficulty, and responsibility of the work actually performed in the position.

"Anniversary Date" is the date within the classification adjusted by any leave or suspension without pay.

"Appeal" is a complaint filed by an employee or group of employees pertaining to employment conditions or personnel practices based on specific provisions of these rules. The term "appeal" or "grievance" may also be used to define a procedure for appeal of alleged violations of a labor agreement as defined in such agreement.

.5 OTHER OFFICIAL COUNTY DOCUMENTS AND PUBLICATIONS

In addition to these polices and procedures, the County may distribute information to employees by means of other documents and publications. These include, but are not limited to employee-wide e-mail announcements, Just the Facts, departmental bulletin boards, mandatory computer screens, and publications and documents distributed through the Commissioners Office, Human Resources Department, and Facilities Maintenance.

.6 KNOWLEDGE OF POLICIES, PROCEDURES, AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Employees are expected to read and have knowledge of these policies and procedures, their department's policies and procedures, if any, and the information contained in other official publications of the County.

By pressing the "Agree" or "OK" or other acknowledgement button on any mandatory County computer screen or Intranet page, the employee acknowledges that he/she has read, understands, and agrees to the material presented. If the employee does not agree, he/she should notify his/her supervisor immediately before proceeding.

.7 MECHANICS OF ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The County's Administrative Policies and Procedures are organized into sections to assist employees in locating information quickly and easily. The County adheres to an established system for the development, formatting, and promulgation of directives. Adopted administrative procedures are available to both employees and the public. Access is maintained on the Intranet and Internet.

7.1 Reference to Gender

Unless otherwise specified, reference to gender in these policies and procedures apply to both sexes. He or him is normally used and, unless otherwise specified means he/she and/or him/her.

7.2 Development and Update of Policies and Procedures

These policies and procedures are developed for use by each employee of the County. The best resource available for developing new procedures or updating existing ones are the employees of the County. All employees are encouraged to participate in the development of, or in making changes to, policies and procedures. There are several ways for employees to initiate procedures or participate in their development, including:

- Informal Suggestion – Either through the employee's chain of command or to the Administrator, as appropriate.
- Formal Draft – Usually presented by a County Official. In order to be considered by the Board, a formal draft shall be presented to the Administrator in proper format.
- Committee Participation – By membership and participation in various working committees maintained in the County.
- Comment on Draft Policy – By commenting to the Administrator on draft policies and procedures. Proposed new and/or amended policies and procedures are posted to the Intranet for comment from employees. They may be announced in a newsletter, by e-mail, or announced on the County's announcement page when they are posted.

7.3 Format of Policies and Procedures

The County adheres to a specific format for administrative policies and procedures and all proposed policies shall be submitted accordingly. A format document is maintained on the Intranet under the "County Forms" link. The automatic numbering function contained in MS Word shall not be used when developing administrative policies and procedures.
