

Applying for a Marriage License:

No appointment is necessary. It is best if both parties come in and apply. If that is not possible - you may request an application from our office and your signature on the completed application must be acknowledged by a notary public.

There are no blood tests, witnesses, birth, or divorce certificates required to apply for a marriage license. Divorced persons may apply for a marriage license as long as the final decree of divorce has been filed.

Age Requirements:

Applicants must be 18 years of age or older.

Applicants 17 years of age must have their parent or legal guardian sign a release form.

Applicants 16 years of age or younger must obtain a court order from Superior Court.

Waiting Period and Expiration:

There is a 3 day waiting period beginning the first day after you apply for your license and ending the third day following application. The license is valid for 60 days and can be used anywhere in the State of Washington.

License Fee:

There is a $56.00 fee for marriage licenses due at the time of application. Cash, money orders, or checks are accepted at this time.
