

Board of Equalization 00100.244.

Mission Statement

---

The Board's goal is to provide impartial adjudication of tax appeals brought by property owners.

Function

The Board of Equalization is an independent Board created to hear appeals on Assessor determinations and to equalize property. The department assists property owners with procedural information for those who wish to appeal the assessor's valuation placed on their real and personal property, as well as hear appeals regarding deferrals.

Goals

1. To assure that all real and personal property is entered on the county's assessment role at 100% "fair market value". The Board has the power to equalize property values.
2. Provide an impartial citizen forum for property owners by receiving individual appeals, conducting hearings, evaluate evidence and issuing determinations.
