Another extreme cold snap is headed our way. Temperatures are predicted to hover around freezing during the day and possibly dip into the 20s overnight.

Below is a list of warming shelter locations that we are aware of. Please contact us if you know of any that did not make our list.

- OlyCap is hosting a warming center at 525 N. 5th Ave (St. Luke's Episcopal Church) through Friday February 25th. The hours will be from 4pm to 9 am each day.
- Serenity House in Port Angeles is open for normal hours of operation.
- The North Olympic Library system is making all of their branches available during normal business hours.
